ANTHEM

The Truth from Above

Ralph Vaughan Williams

Kantor

This is the truth sent from above, the truth of God, the God of love,
Therefore don't turn me from your door, but hearken all, both rich and poor.
The first thing which I do relate is that God did man create;
The next thing which to you I'll tell, woman was made with man to dwell.
Then after this 'twas God's own choice to place them both in Paradise,
There to remain from evil free, except they ate of such a tree.
And they did eat, which was a sin, and thus their ruin did begin;
Ruined themselves, both you and me, and all of their posterity.
Thus we were heirs to endless woes, till God the Lord did interpose;
And so a promise soon did run that He would redeem us by His Son.

COLLECT OF THE DAY

P We praise and thank You, O God, the Beginning and the End; who through Christ are the Creator and Preserver of the whole world; but above all, You are His God and Father, the Giver of the Spirit, and the Ruler of all that is, seen and unseen; who made the day for the works of light and the night for the refreshment of our weakness. O loving Lord and Source of all good, mercifully accept our evening sacrifice of praise. As You have conducted us through the day and brought us to night's beginning, keep us now in Christ; grant us a peaceful evening and a night free from sin; and at the end bring us to everlasting life through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, through whom be glory, honor, power, and might to You in the Holy Spirit, now and unto the Age of ages.

C Amen.
