ANTHEM Christ, Thou Who Art Both Day and Light Michael Praetorius
Text for your meditation Recorder Ensemble

Christ, Thou who art both Day and Light,
To Thee, Lord, naught is veiled in night.
In Thee the Father's light doth shine:
Teach us the way of truth divine.

We pray Thee in Thy heav'nly might
That Thou wouldst keep us, Lord, this night.
Preserve us, Lord, from all distress,
God Father, in Thy kindliness.

Drive off, Lord Christ, all troubled sleep;
The foe's devices from us keep;
In decency our flesh be pure;
Then we'll be free of ev'ry care.

Though closed in sleep our eyes may be,
Grant that our hearts may wake to Thee.
Be God our Shield with His right hand,
And loose us from the bonds of sin.

O Lord, Thou Shield of Christian folk,
Be ever ready with Thy help;
Deliver us, Lord God, from dread,
Through Thy five holy wounds of red.

Remember, Lord, the troubled times
In which our body bounden lies;
To souls which Thou hast justified,
Thy comfort, Jesus, be supplied.

To God the Father be all praise,
Which also to His Son we raise,
And to the Spirit praises be
From now unto eternity. Amen.
